

Science

To learn about living things and their habitats. To describe animal adaptations to the environment they live in as well as the life process of reproduction in both plants and animals.

Music

To appreciate and understand a wide range of high quality music drawn from different traditions and from great composers and musicians. Charanga unit – Make You Feel My Love.

Maths

Consolidation.
Number: Decimals.
Geometry: Properties of Shape, Position and Direction.
Statistics.

Languages

To consolidate the learning of nouns and adjective agreement in Italian.

RE

To explore how Jewish beliefs are expressed in the home.

PE

To take part in outdoor and adventurous activity challenges both individually and within a team to use running, throwing and jumping in isolation and in combination in Athletics.

Year 5 Summer 1

English

Speaking and listening opportunities, including drama. To develop our spelling, punctuation and grammar skills. To explore a range of genres including letters, stories, descriptive writing and persuasive writing based on the text 'The Boy at the Back of the Class'.

PSHE

'Relationships'.
Understanding your rights and responsibilities of being in an online community.
Being able to explain how to use technology safely.

Computing

To understand computer networks including the internet and how they can provide multiple services.

RRSA

Article 3 – The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all decisions and actions that affect children.

Article 42 – Governments must actively work to make sure children and adults know about the Convention.

Article 23 – A child with a disability has the right to live a full and decent life with dignity and, as far as possible, independence and to play an active part in the community. Governments must do all they can to support disabled children and their families.

History

To learn about our local environment to develop our enquiry skills and our chronological range. We will use primary sources such as maps, census, buildings and photographs to further our learning.

Art

To monoprint with inspiration from David Hockney and Tracey Emin.